

PRESS RELEASE

A Visit to Sanatana Dharma Orphanage

Seminyak, September 12th 2017

The celebration of 16th anniversary of The Samaya Seminyak was started with visiting an orphanage named Sanatana Dharma on September 9th 2017. This orphanage is located in Jembrana regency; west area of Bali; and it takes about 3 hours from Denpasar city by car. Sanatana Dharma orphanage has around 35 children with range age between 6 to 17 years old where most of them are high school students. On our visit on last Saturday, the Samaya Seminyak team including the management, employees and representative of labor union delivered stationaries, daily needs, food supplies and cash money which were the donation from the company and employees. Besides the donation from company and employee, the food supplies and stationaries donated by one of our loyal guests; Mr. Paul and Mrs. Sandra Lawrence; were also delivered. Some games such as eating crackers, blowing candles and arranging puzzles were also conducted to make more fun atmosphere. (smy/shn)
